<Dear salutation>

A change for ReAssure

The attached letter has been sent to ReAssure policyholders to explain the proposed transfer of business from Legal & General into ReAssure.

Why have you written to me?

Because your Namulas policy (or the Namulas policy you have an interest in) is invested in one or more ReAssure funds.

Who is ReAssure?

ReAssure is a life and pensions company which buys and administers closed books of business from other companies. Read more at reassure.co.uk/about-us.

What do I need to do?

You should read the attached letter, and supporting documents at www.reassure.co.uk/LGAS-transfer.

If you're happy with the proposed transfer you don't need to do anything. If you have any comments, questions, objections or concerns about the proposed transfer you should get in touch with ReAssure using the contact details in the attached letter.

If you have a query that isn't related to the proposed transfer, you should contact Namulas using the usual contact details. Please do not contact Namulas about the proposed transfer.

<Yours sincerely>
